

Astral Alkemy, LLC.

Consent & Client Acknowledgment

This agreement is designed to ensure clarity, mutual understanding, and energetic integrity within the sacred container of Astral Alkemy. It outlines the scope, structure, and nature of the bespoke services offered, reflecting both spiritual ethics and professional standards.

Introduction

This Agreement is entered into between the client (“Client”) and Astral Alkemy, LLC. (“Company”), a California limited liability company. All services described herein are rendered exclusively through Astral Alkemy, LLC.

Jzeela Gheisar is a psycho-spiritual guide, intuitive channel, and steward of sacred transformation. She serves in devotion to the highest good, bridging the mental, emotional, astral, and auric fields for discerning clients across the world.

Under the title of Coach, Metaphysical Mentor, Reader, or Consultant (herein referred to as “mentor” or “practitioner”), she provides bespoke services designed to strengthen inner resourcing, reconnect clients with their innate divinity, and recalibrate their energetic centers into greater harmony and alignment.

Jzeela holds a Master’s Degree in Counseling Psychology and is a Certified Hypnotherapist specializing in transpersonal modalities. Although she is also licensed as a Marriage and Family Therapist in the state of California, all services offered through Astral Alkemy are separate and distinct from psychotherapy and are not provided under her LMFT license.

Scope of Services

Astral Alkemy offers transformative experiences in personal evolution, spiritual guidance, and professional growth. Services span intuitive and metaphysical mentorship, transpersonal hypnotherapy, and executive-level communication and wellness education. Each offering is designed to cultivate clarity, alignment, and conscious leadership—whether in one’s inner world or organizational sphere.

While the work may integrate psychological insight and intuitive intelligence, it is provided exclusively as coaching, consulting, and spiritual mentorship. These sessions are not psychotherapy, medical treatment, or a substitute for licensed mental-health or healthcare services. Clients are encouraged to consult appropriate professionals for any clinical or medical concerns.

Corporate and educational programs under Astral Alkemy are consultative and developmental in nature, intended to enhance communication, collaboration, and cultural cohesion within organizations. They do not constitute psychotherapy or clinical intervention under the practitioner’s LMFT license.

All metaphysical and corporate offerings are private, self-invested experiences and are not eligible for insurance reimbursement. For clinical psychotherapy, clients may inquire through Quantum Conscious Healing, available exclusively to California residents.

Nature of Experience

Every Astral Alkemy experience is a multidimensional journey — one that may engage the mental, emotional, energetic, and spiritual planes. Whether conducted in person or virtually, each session is curated with intention, reverence, and precision to create a safe, sacred space for transformation.

Emotional release, deep insight, and profound realization are natural aspects of this work. Each client's process is unique; outcomes unfold organically, often continuing to integrate long after the session itself. Clients are encouraged to allow time for reflection, rest, and self-care as the experience settles and new awareness takes root.

This work transcends the purely physical — inviting connection with higher states of consciousness and greater alignment with one's purpose, clarity, and vitality.

Modalities

Astral Alkemy sessions draw upon a dynamic fusion of disciplines — integrating transpersonal hypnotherapy, intuitive guidance, metaphysical mentoring, corporate wellness education, and executive coaching. Depending on the experience selected, modalities may include spiritual readings, chakra recalibration, energy alignment, manifestation frameworks, leadership consulting, workshops, or immersive retreats.

Each offering is bespoke — intuitively designed to meet the individual or group's unique energetic, emotional, and developmental needs. The practitioner curates every session in alignment with the client's intentions, readiness, and highest good.

While each experience is intentionally crafted to support transformation, no specific outcome can be guaranteed. Growth and integration are deeply personal processes, influenced by timing, openness, and individual engagement with the work.

Locations & Privacy

Sessions may be held in a private studio, executive suite, client's home, or a mutually agreed-upon venue aligned with the intention of the work. For destination or on-site engagements, travel and accommodation arrangements will be coordinated in advance, and additional travel fees may apply.

When meeting in semi-public or shared environments—such as retreat spaces, conferences, or private events—privacy cannot be fully guaranteed. By participating, clients acknowledge and accept these natural limits to confidentiality.

For virtual or tele-sessions, clients are asked to create a quiet, comfortable, and uninterrupted environment. A stable internet connection, privacy, and a serene atmosphere support the energetic integrity and effectiveness of the experience.

Commitment to the Work

Each session is a sacred container—its potency depends on your presence, focus, and willingness to engage fully. The length and cadence of sessions vary depending on the offering and are intentionally designed to support sustainable transformation.

Consistency and devotion amplify results. This work invites you to show up with openness, curiosity, and respect for the process. Should patterns of disengagement arise, or if the alignment of the work shifts, the practitioner reserves the right to pause or discontinue services until a renewed commitment and energetic readiness are restored.

Practitioner's Right to Discontinue Services

The practitioner reserves the right to pause or discontinue services at her sole discretion if it becomes evident that the work is no longer aligned, that the client–practitioner relationship is not a mutual fit, or if circumstances arise that compromise the integrity or safety of the container.

Such decisions are always made with care, discernment, and respect for both parties' energy and evolution.

In the event services are discontinued, any unused portion of prepaid packages or retainers will be refunded on a prorated basis, unless otherwise specified by written agreement.

Cancellations & Rescheduling

Your appointment time is a sacred container reserved exclusively for you. Out of respect for the energetic and professional commitment this work requires, all bookings are non-refundable and non-transferable.

One complimentary reschedule is available when requested at least 48 hours in advance of the scheduled appointment. Any subsequent reschedules, cancellations made within 48 hours, or missed appointments (“no-shows”) are considered fulfilled in full, honoring the reserved time and energetic preparation invested.

Appointments begin and end at the scheduled time. Late arrivals may result in a shortened experience while the full investment remains in effect, in integrity with the time set aside for you.

Payment

To reserve your sacred appointment, payment is required in full at the time of booking. Each offering represents a private, bespoke experience prepared specifically for you; therefore, all fees are non-refundable and non-transferable once scheduled.

Multi-appointment, corporate, or retreat-level partnerships are confirmed upon receipt of a retainer or signed agreement, with the remaining balance due prior to the commencement of services.

Investment may be completed via Apple Pay, Zelle, or other approved electronic methods. Upon request, a digital invoice can be provided for professional or business expense documentation.

Confidentiality & Public Contact

Confidentiality is regarded as a sacred trust within all Astral Alkemy experiences. Personal information, conversations, and shared insights remain private and are held in the highest respect.

In public settings or digital spaces, the practitioner will never initiate recognition of a client to preserve discretion. The choice to acknowledge or engage remains entirely with the client.

Clients engaging in corporate or group settings acknowledge that confidentiality within shared experiences is co-created and collective; while the practitioner upholds discretion, the privacy of other attendees cannot be guaranteed. Each participant is encouraged to maintain respect and professionalism within shared energetic containers.

Privacy & Data Use

Astral Alkemy, LLC. honors the confidentiality and sacred nature of all client relationships. Personal information, session content, and communication are never sold, traded, or disclosed to third parties for marketing or solicitation purposes.

Information shared is used exclusively for the purpose of providing and improving services, maintaining contact, and ensuring a seamless experience. While Astral Alkemy, LLC. does not share your information, third-party platforms used for scheduling, communication, or payment (such as Wix, Zoom, Apple Pay, or Zelle) each maintain their own privacy policies and terms, which exist outside the Company's control.

Clients are encouraged to review the privacy terms of these external services prior to use. By engaging in services, clients acknowledge and consent to the use of these standard tools to facilitate communication and coordination.

Social Media

The practitioner maintains public social media accounts. These are not secure or private forums and should not be used for session communications or emergencies. Clients are encouraged to exercise discernment when engaging publicly.

Ethics

The practitioner is not a mandated reporter under California law in this role. However, she reserves the right to inform appropriate authorities if there is suspected abuse or imminent risk of harm. This is an ethical choice, not a legal requirement.

Messages received through Spirit are shared as they are given, without embellishment or distortion. All work is conducted in devotion to the highest good, with the intention to bring about alignment, clarity, and transformation, and harm to none.

Tele-Services & Communication Consent

Sessions may be conducted via phone, video, or other electronic platforms. The practitioner may also utilize third-party services—including Wix, email, text messaging, and scheduling tools—to support communication and logistics.

While every reasonable effort is made to honor confidentiality, electronic communications cannot be guaranteed fully secure. This applies to all forms of digital correspondence, including session links, scheduling reminders, texts, and emails.

By engaging in these services, the client acknowledges this inherent risk and agrees to disclose only what feels aligned and appropriate through such channels.

Emergencies

Astral Alkemy does not provide emergency services. In the event of a crisis or medical emergency, call 911 or your local emergency number.

These services are not appropriate for acute crisis situations.

Client Acknowledgment & Release of Liability

By signing this agreement, the client affirms full understanding of the information above and acknowledges that all services rendered through Astral Alkemy, LLC. are intended for spiritual, educational, and transformational purposes. These offerings are not medical, psychological, or psychiatric treatment, nor are they a substitute for licensed healthcare.

Participation is entirely voluntary. The client recognizes that their own engagement, openness, and consistency are integral to the depth of this work and accepts responsibility for their personal experience.

No specific outcomes or results are guaranteed. The practitioner serves solely as a guide and facilitator of energetic, spiritual, or educational processes.

By proceeding with services, the client releases Astral Alkemy, LLC. and its representatives from any and all liability for decisions, interpretations, or actions taken as a result of these experiences.

The client enters this agreement with clarity, self-awareness, and intention — honoring this work as a private, bespoke journey of personal evolution.
