

Astral Alkemy, LLC

Metaphysical Consulting & Life Advising Agreement

Purpose and Intention

This Agreement establishes a clear understanding between the client (“Client”) and Astral Alkemy, LLC (“Company”), a California limited liability company, regarding the nature and scope of the services offered. It is designed to ensure transparency, mutual respect, and energetic integrity within the sacred working relationship.

All services provided under Astral Alkemy are offered in the capacity of metaphysical consulting, spiritual guidance, and life coaching, not psychotherapy, counseling, or medical treatment.

About the Practitioner

Jzeela Gheisar is a metaphysical practitioner, intuitive channel, and transformational guide devoted to the alignment and awakening of consciousness. She holds a Master’s Degree in Counseling Psychology and is a Certified Hypnotherapist specializing in transpersonal modalities.

Although she is also a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in the state of California, all services offered through Astral Alkemy are separate and distinct from psychotherapy and are not provided under her LMFT license.

Sessions through Astral Alkemy are private, non-clinical experiences intended for education, spiritual growth, and personal empowerment.

Scope of Services

Services may include, but are not limited to:

- Lifestyle, communication, or connection advising
- Intuitive guidance and spiritual mentorship
- Transpersonal hypnotherapy and visualization journeys
- Energy alignment, chakra recalibration, and manifestation coaching
- Channeling and soul-level integration work
- Individual, couples, or group connection experiences

These sessions and classes are designed to help clients gain insight, reconnect with intuition, and foster meaningful transformation in their lives. They may include reflective conversation, guided meditation, and intuitive or energetic practices.

All offerings are educational and spiritual in nature. They do not diagnose, treat, or prevent any mental-health or medical condition. Clients are encouraged to continue working with licensed professionals for any clinical concerns.

Nature of the Work

This work invites self-inquiry, emotional release, and energetic transformation. Clients may experience deep insight, emotional shifts, or heightened sensitivity following sessions. These experiences are natural aspects of personal evolution.

Each client's process is unique. While many experience profound results, no specific outcome can be guaranteed. Growth, communication, or relationship improvement depend on each individual's readiness, openness, and engagement with the work.

Group and couples sessions are educational and experiential, and not psychotherapy or a substitute for licensed relationship counseling. Confidentiality within groups cannot be fully guaranteed.

Client Commitment

The effectiveness of this work relies on your active participation, presence, and willingness to explore with honesty. Sessions are collaborative and respect your autonomy.

You may pause or end services at any time. The practitioner may also discontinue sessions if it becomes clear that another form of support would better serve your wellbeing.

Confidentiality

All sessions are held in confidence. Information shared is kept private except in rare circumstances where disclosure is ethically appropriate—for example, if there is a perceived risk of harm to self or others.

Because this work is not psychotherapy, the practitioner is not a mandated reporter, but may choose to act in alignment with ethical responsibility.

For online sessions, clients are encouraged to create a quiet, private environment. Electronic communication (email, text, video, etc.) cannot be guaranteed fully secure, though reasonable precautions are always taken.

Payment and Scheduling

Payment in full is required to reserve your session. All offerings are non-refundable and non-transferable.

One complimentary reschedule may be made with at least 48 hours' notice. Cancellations made within 48 hours or missed sessions are considered fulfilled in full.

Accepted payment methods include Apple Pay, Zelle, or other approved electronic forms.

Ethical Standards

All work is conducted with integrity, compassion, and devotion to the highest good. Intuitive guidance and channeled messages are shared as received, without guarantee, interpretation bias, or claim of absolute truth.

The client retains full responsibility for decisions and actions arising from this work.

This practice does not provide emergency or crisis services. If you are in crisis or need immediate support, please contact emergency services or a licensed professional.

Client Acknowledgment & Release

By signing below, you affirm that you understand and agree that:

- Services offered by Astral Alkemy, LLC are not psychotherapy, counseling, or medical treatment, and are not a substitute for licensed care.
- You engage voluntarily and take full responsibility for your own wellbeing and decisions.
- No guarantees or promises of specific results are made.
- You release Astral Alkemy, LLC, Jzeela Gheisar, and all representatives from liability for any outcomes arising from your participation.

This agreement reflects your clear intention to engage in a private, spiritual, and educational experience designed to support your personal, relational, and energetic evolution.
